CAPITOL REMOVAL

Citizens' Mass Meeting to Hear the Report of the Committee

There will be a citizens' mass meeting at the court house Friday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock sharp, to hear the report of the Capitol Removal Committee. Every citizen, whether he contributed to the campaign or not, should have a desire to know how much money was raised and how it was spent for this purpose. Treasurer M. Fishel will be on hand with his report and we feel confident a full house awaits the reading of the same.

A NIGHT OF TERROR

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that dreadful night. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung diseases. HOW EACH HEARD THE NEWS

Intimate Friends of the Rival Candidates Gathered Around Them to Hear the Results

Canton, O., Nov. 7.—President McKinley received the election returns last night at his home, surrounded by a large number of his old friends and neighbors, including many ladies, who came as the guests of Mrs. McKinley, to share with her the interest and excitement of this culminating event of the campaign.

Direct wires connected the house with the republican national headquarters at New York and Chicago, with Senator Hanna, at the Union Club, in Cleveland, and with the home of Governor Roosevelt, at Oyster Bay, so that the president was in constant telegraphic touch with his associates on the ticket and with the campaign leaders.

The president made his headquarters in his library, where most of the gentlemen congregated, while Mrs. McKinley entertained the ladies in the parlor. The president was in his usual good humor, showing no anxiety over the result.

President and Mrs. McKinley this morning after breakfast received many friends who called to offer congratulations. The president was in buoyant spirits and expressed warm gratification at the result. Telegrams from all parts of the country poured in on him. Roosevelt early congratulated him. Canton was wild with enthusiasm all night.

How Bryan Heard It

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 7.—Mr. Bryan received election returns at his residence in this city last evening.

His house was fairly overrun with newspaper men and telegraph operators. Not only was the first floor of the house largely given up to them, but two of the rooms in the second story also. Four telegraph wires were run into the house.

Mr. Bryan had with him his brother, Charles Bryan, his former law partner, Ex-State Senator Talbot, Committeeman Dahlman and Attorney Schmidt. Mrs. Bryan had as companions a cousin, Mrs. Rogers, and Mrs. Dahlman. In Mr. Bryan's precinct McKinley got 208 votes and Bryan 105.

Mr. Bryan rose at his usual time this morning. He was refreshed by a long, sound sleep. To all outward appearances he is as cheerful and contented as if he had not been defeated a second time. He received a number of intimate friends.

A CORRECTION

During the first week of court, among a batch of indictments returned by the grand jury, we published a statement to the effect that a true bill was found against E. W. Smith for murder. Mr. Smith is a prominent and worthy citizen of Bellevue and was arrested on a warrant sworn out by parties whose stock he had handled pretty roughly in expelling from his field, where they were trespassing, but the grand jury found no bill against him.

WORSE AND WORSE

Nebraska and Kentucky Are Both in the Republican Column

New York, Nov. 8.—The latest returns from the national election do not materially change the results announced last night.

The most doubtful state in the race has been Tennessee, but the doubtfulness seems to have been the result of slowness of returns. The latest figures gives the state safely to Bryan, by about 10,000.

The most distressing feature of the election to the democratic leaders is the result in Nebraska, Bryan's home state. Today's figures clear away all doubts about its being republican. It has elected a republican governor, and the legislature is also republican, which defeats the idea of electing Bryan to the senate.

Kentucky came safely to the republican column by the later figures. The result was in doubt until the Eleventh congressional district was heard from. This district gave heavy republican majorities, completing the capture of the state.

Bryan Was Surprised

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 8.—William J. Bryan has remained at home today. He has declined to make any statement. This afternoon he said:

"I am more than surprised at the republican landslide. I could not see how such an overwhelming defeat was possible, considering how fully the voters had been informed of the issues before them. It is clearly a case in which the cry of prosperity has carried the people off their feet, and caused them to forget the great dangers which threaten the republic."

Five Thousand in Nebraska

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 8.—Returns from all but a few scattering precincts in the state give McKinley a plurality of at least 5000.

Charles H. Dietrich, republican, is elected governor. The legislature is close, but the republicans will control both houses on joint ballot. Chairman Edmison, of the state central committee, populist, concedes the state to McKinley.

THE VOTE IN FLORIDA

Tallahassee Carries the State by a Large Plurality

Jacksonville, Nov. 8.—Returns thus far received show the majorities given in this state to be as follows in round numbers:

Bryan over McKinley, 21,000; Jennings over Macfarlane, for governor, 22,000; Sparkman over Patterson, for congress, first district, 13,000; Davis over Cheney, for congress, second district, 11,000.

Tallahassee's plurality* in the state for the capital is approximately 4000, with Jacksonville second in the race. All the independent candidates in Duval county were defeated, but they gave the democratic nominees a closer race than was expected.
